Customer Reviews

Barely. Paintings, twenty and four of them. By Paul Klee. The titles are the only words in the book. No pesky artist's bio here. No historical context on why these paintings are important. Not zoomable. Not the artist's best work nor most child friendly. Just a random selection. All the titles in this series are similarly lackluster.

I love having the art available at my fingertip as we study the artists. This is so convenient. We would be much less likely to complete our fine arts study without such a ready resource.

Perfect for our Classical Conversations group and also her Atelier art classes this fall. I wish I would have found them last fall but better late than never!
