The Gunks Guide

This book is nice. Only thing that could have made this a 5 star book was if it had been in color - but then - I only know of 1 GUNKS guidebook being in color (The Gunks by Zach Orencak & Rachael Lynn - which can be hard to find). Otherwise this book is great. Great pics, diagrams, charts, maps, etc. A DEF must if you want to climb the Gunks! If combined with the above guidebook as well, you have a def kick butt combo for finding routes, reading about GUNKS history, and even some 70's retro pics of some famous climbers as well. The color pics from Orencak & Lynn's book help a lot in actually 'locating' the correct route(s), and different sections of the GUNKS such as a Trapps, Near Trapps, etc.

This is a great book for listing out the many climbs at the Gunks. Excellent for someone who has climbed there a few times. If it is your first time there the book will take a little getting used to as the descriptions are not as detailed as other climbing guides... but then again that adds to the adventure a little to find the right route. And certainly at the Gunks any adventure is nice since so much of the Gunks is setup for the masses. Lucas HartfordEvergreen[...]

Ok book, but it's several years old now. If you are climbing at the Trapps, get the app.

well put together guide book

Simple concise, covers a lot of territory for its size. Gives background on the different climbing areas, but again the descriptions are brief. An excellent guide for those who don't want much fluff.
